Dear Harold,

Understand Capp "on" for next week as yours J.P.

On Capp: an unethical Pyne. Sarcastic. Insulting. A gutter type. Will try to rattle and goad you. Stay cool and address yourself to the audience not to Capp. Brush off his jokes and insults and say what you want to say. Always the audience and never Capp.

Steve may get the D.C. spot. I'll see him on Sunday.

Perhaps The H.R. works too good, as was Sylvia's book, for attention. I hope the latter look won't kill it prematurely.

Ellsberg: winner but usual for his possession of the papers was known long before their publication and his views on the war. There were no secrets, either.

Sold in New York for Upstairs at Downstairs appearance. Has been on all the talk shows.

Has adapted U.S. Thesis of evil CIA, evil Pentagon. Total N.G. Layetts. Attacked Shaw, also.

You've got to like Mort despite himself.

If you've got any good Maben-Hughes-Stubb, it should be good for an article.

Look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,
